

When two people love each other
As you obviously do
There's no storm that you can't weather
No grey skies can cloud your view
For the love you share together
Warms you when the nights are cold
And when troubles come around
You always have a hand to hold

You are there for one another
Throughout the months and years
Sharing joys and disappointments
Hopes and dreams and fears

Yes you're both so very special
And you're sent this wish to say
May the love you share together
Be enriched with each new day.

Verse Ref No: AV-01

There's nothing nicer to be said to a special couple like you Than to wish you more each other all year through...

to the fullest while it's here,
And may you find it starts you on another happy year!*

Through the happy and the sad
To be true to one another
Through the good times and the bad.*

*Three score years you've held on tight
To what you've both believed
So many things to reminisce
Of what you have achieved.
Enjoy each moment of today
And hold your heads with pride
While you celebrate six decades together side by side.*

Verse Ref No: AV-06C

Today will bring back memories
Like anniversaries do.
But 25 years ago today
All my dreams came true.

For when we took our wedding vows
I remember how I felt.
And then you took my hand in yours
And I thought my heart would melt.

So on our Silver Wedding
I'd really like to say.
It may be 25 years ago
But it feels like yesterday.

With All My Love
On Our Silver Anniversary
