

I didn't believe it was possible to be as happy as I am today, I just want to hold you and hug you for I really don't know what to say...

...Except that I think you are wonderful and so very precious to me, We've been brought even closer together than I ever imagined we'd be.

We've shared a magical moment that I'll treasure for the rest of time, For now I have a beautiful Daughter and her Mother who'll always be mine.
